Arkansas Needs State Liquor Store System

As you read in an AP dispatch from Blytheville which was published yesterday the Arkansas Fair Managers association will attempt to initiate an act setting up a state-owned liquor dispensary.

This is something The Star has been advocating for nearly 20 years — and we'll support the fair managers 100 per cent.

According to the official study of the Joint Committee of the States titled "Alcoholic Beverage Control," of 1930, there are 17 states with publicly-owned liquor monopolies. That is, the state owns and operates all package stores selling hard liquor (beer excluded) — devoting the profits to the support of the public schools, welfare agencies, and the like.

The 17 states — more than one-third of the 48 — are:

Alabama, Idaho, Iowa, Maine, Michigan, Montana, New Hampshire, North Carolina, Ohio, Oregon, Pennsylvania, Utah, Vermont, Virginia, Washington, West Virginia, and Wyoming.

Currently the fair managers of Arkansas are angry at the private liquor dealers because the latter are threatening to refer to the people a legislative act increasing the liquor tax for the benefit of the public funds. Hence this counter-threat to put the private dealers out of business and replace them with a publicly-owned system.

But from the long-range view Arkansas needs the state dispensary system regardless of the current quarrel. When Hempstead county was "wet" — 1936 to 1946 — the liquor industry itself gave me an estimate that operating profits in this county alone were a potential $90,000 a year. And as a business man I will lay on the line my conviction that a state dispensary would produce for the tax-supported institutions of Arkansas more than 10 million dollars a year over and above what existing taxes on liquor and beer are producing.

It rubs many citizens sorely to see a commonwealth levy a 2% sales tax against the bread and milk and meat that its citizens require for everyday life while millions of dollars in potential tax money are ignorantly or prejudicially lost because of the primitive, backward attitude some people take toward a commodity that is as old as civilization itself.

Sponsors for Ball Teams Sought

The Parks and Recreation Commission is anxious to start with the organization of various leagues both male and female, soft ball and base ball.

As a preliminary move they are asking all persons interested in either playing or sponsoring contact either by phone or in person the Chamber of Commerce office. When you call or go by the office to register, they will request you to give such information as age, address which sport you prefer, etc.

When this information is accumulated, the commission will call for a meeting of all interested parties and will proceed with the program.

It has been indicated that there is sufficient interest to form a Little League in baseball. This league is comprised of 12-year-olds and under. To do this each team must have a sponsor, so the commission is calling adult ex-baseball players to register as sponsors.

It is also hoped that a Church League, commercial league and girls league can be formed in soft ball.

If you are interested please register at the Chamber of Commerce office.

Swimming Pool Praised by Sanitarians

G. T. Kellogg, District engineer and Gomer Jones Dist. No. 3 sanitarian of the State Health Dept. were in Hope Tuesday.

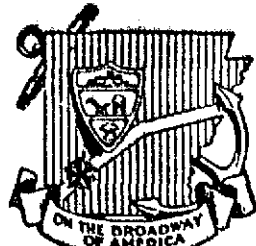

These men came here at the request of the Parks and Recreation Commission, to inspect the swimming pool and make recommendations to the commission as to what should be done and what should not be done prior to the opening of the pool.

Both men were very complimentary of the pool and its past management from a sanitation standpoint.

All of their recommendations were of a minor nature and will be reviewed by the commission at its next meeting and then presented to the city council for authority to complete prior to the pool opening.

As in the past the pool will open about May 30. In a recent survey made at the High School swimming was the No. 2 preference of the student body.

$33 Million in Cotton, Wheat Supports Likely

WASHINGTON (AP) — Secretary Benson said today the Agriculture Department may need $33,750,000 for production controls on wheat and cotton, to handle surplus which he blamed in part on the Truman administration.

President Eisenhower pledged during the campaign last year that agricultural controls would be held to a minimum if he were elected.

Because of large supplies already on hand and prospects for big production again this year, the secretary said his department already has started preparing for possible acreage allotments and marketing quotas on the 1954 wheat and cotton crops.

Final decision will not be made Benson said, until the latest possible information is available on supply and demand.

"This administration," Benson said in a formal statement, "finds itself faced with a situation for which it is not responsible and over which it has little control."

"Increasing supplies of wheat

Elections Set for July 28, August 11

Hempstead Democrats' Central Committee fixed city and town election dates in a meeting this morning at Hope City Hall over which Chairman W. S. Atkins presided.

The elections were set for July 28 and August 11, with the filing deadline of noon on Wednesday, April 29.

In the matter of fees subcommittee from Hope, Fulton, Washington, Ozan, Elkins and McCaskill will fix the amounts.

VFW Installs New Officers Tuesday Night

Formal installation of officers-elect of the Ramsey-Cargile VFW Post was held at post headquarters last night, with the Department of Arkansas senior vice commander, Hubert Herrington of Pine Bluff, Ark., as the installing officer.

Out-going commander, Herbert Griffin, was presented with an Onyx Past Commander Pin, by incoming Commander Donald H. Dill, on behalf of the entire post. Dill also presented Griffin with a Gold Wheel Horse Card for outstanding work in membership, at the behest of the Department Commander H. M. "Pop" Warner.

New officers are Donald Dill, Commander, Claude H. Byrd, senior vice-commander, Phillip Del Vecchio, junior vice-commander, Steve Bader, Quartermaster, Joseph Keese, Chaplain, C. V. Nunn, Jr., Advocate, Jim McKenzie, surgeon, Syvyle Burke and Perry Henley, Trustees.

Commander Dill announced that the National Chaplain, the Reverend Johnstone Beech, of Gainesville, Texas, would soon be the guest of the post and the Department of Arkansas. Refreshments were served following the meeting.

One Way to Beat Inflation, Cut Expenses Is to Borrow — Many People Seem to Do It

By HAL BOYLE
NEW YORK (AP) — There is a quick easy way to beat inflation and cut down on your expenses. Become a borrower.

Many people today are behind the financial 8-ball all the time because they waste money buying things they could borrow.

A good borrower always has a fat bank account because he doesn't fritter away his take-home pay by purchasing gadgets and luxuries his neighbors own — and will gladly lend you, if you twist his arm hard enough.

The motto of the successful borrower is: "Don't try to outdo the Joneses. Just keep even with them by borrowing everything they haven't got nailed down."

Let Jones sweat himself into an early grave trying to achieve the better life by hard work and hard cash. If you go about it tactfully, you can get him to share everything he's got except his life insurance policy — and you may even be able to talk him into borrowing money for you on that.

There are tricks to every trade, of course, and if you want to be-

British Blame 2 More Deaths on Strangler

LONDON (UPI) — John R. Christie, 55-year-old clerk suspected as London's "Notting Hill Strangler," was charged with three more murders today.

Christie was charged two weeks ago with murdering his wife Ethel, 50, and hiding her body in a slum area chamber of horrors last December.

At West London magistrates court today he was formally accused of killing Rita Elizabeth Nelson, Kathleen Maloney and Hectorina MacClellan during January and February.

The three women — all in their 20's — were found sealed up behind red wallpaper in Christie's gloomy apartment at No. 10 Rillington Place in the Notting Hill section of London. The body of his wife was found hidden under floorboards.

Parts of two other bodies were found buried in a small garden outside the "house of murder," but there has been no court action involving them.

South Africans Vote General Election

JOHANNESBURG, South Africa (AP) — Worried South Africans voted today in a fateful general election, clinching five of the stormiest years in the country's recent history.

Mining millionaires, bearded Beers and plain citizens of this British Commonwealth land trekked in record numbers from city, bush and factory to voting stations that opened at 7 a. m. for 13 hours.

The government assigned armed police to all polling places. Ragged-looking even soldiers, by as the white man's election began — as silent because they are evicted, sullen because the two chief parties are pledged to maintain white supremacy. Their major campaign difference was over now to do it.

The governing Nationalists, with a highly barred political machine controlled by Prime Minister Daniel F. Malan, claimed right up to the opening of the polls that victory would be sure and easy. The rival United party, which the late Field Marshal Jan Christian Smuts helped found, said easily they could win if every supporter voted.

Tuesday program at the Hope Kiwanis Club was presented by Supt. John H. Houck, Jr. of the Spring Hill Schools and young ladies of the Spring Hill Glee Club. Mr. Houck presented a brief sketch of the history of Spring Hill beginning with the first settlement in 1836 including the founding of the Female Academy there and the fortifications on Delaney Hill during the Civil War, where Confederate soldiers were stationed.

He pointed out that the Spring Hill School District now comprised 90 square miles, had an enumeration of 375 and for the past 3 years was a grade 'A' school. He added that it had one of the best Home Ec and Agriculture Departments of any school in the State of the same size.

Then Mr. Houck introduced Mrs. C. F. Batson, music supervisor in the school, who presented Misses Patti Collins, Billie Jean Kidd, Wanda Bobo, June Anderson, Pauline Martin, and Helen Anderson of the Spring Hill Glee Club, who gave special numbers.

Royce Weisenberger was in charge of the program.

Recommends 8 Percent Return for Bell Co.

By LEON HATCH
LITTLE ROCK (AP) — A witness for Southwestern Bell Telephone Company today recommended that the company be permitted a return of at least eight per cent on its investment.

Such a minimum return if necessary to attract investment capital, the Arkansas Public Service Commission was told by Eugene S. Merrill of New York, Merrill is executive vice president of Standard and Research Consultants, a subsidiary of the Financial Firm, Standard and Poore.

Merrill was on the stand during the third day of the commission's hearing on Southwestern Bell's application for a 2.3 million dollar a year rate increase in Arkansas.

Merrill said that during the past year period Bell's Arkansas earnings had average 2.3 per cent compared to 13.8 per cent for industrial firms in the 5-state area served by the telephone company and 6.9 per cent for electric utilities in the same section.

Traditionally a 6 per cent return has been the standard for utility companies.

Bell contends that even if the Commission grants the requested 2.3 million dollar increase its earnings will not reach even the six per cent figure.

Merrill said that if it has not been for reserves the Bell system

Planes Find Only 2 Convoys of Prisoners

By ROBERT B. TUCKMAN
MUNSAN, Korea (AP) — Allied planes today spotted two truck convoys, highballing sick and wounded U. N. war prisoners, toward the gate to freedom at Panmunjom.

There was no report of a third convoy the Reds said also is moving south through North Korea.

The three convoys are carrying part of 600 disabled U. N. troops to be traded for 5,800 Red sick and injured beginning Monday.

Meanwhile, the U. N. Command said 930 Chinese prisoners are being readied for exchange — 230 more than the 700 the Allies told Red liaison officers at Panmunjom would be returned as "sick and wounded. There was no immediate explanation for the higher figure.

Even as the announcement came almost 750 Chinese Reds on the first leg toward home rebelled bravely against the U. N.

They refused for 2½ hours to leave a landing ship that took them from Cheju Island to the South Korean mainland, but they finally fled off after armed Allied guards wearing gas masks came aboard.

COLUMBUS, O., (AP) — George M. Trautman, president of the National Association of Professional Baseball Leagues today ruled, for the first time, the Hot Springs, Ark., franchise by the Cotton States League was not valid.

Trautman also ruled "the employment of Negro players has never been, or is now, prohibited by any provision in the major league agreement, the major league rules or the National Association agreement."

New Director Lists Highway Ailments

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — The new director of the State Highway Department today labeled Arkansas' highways as "good to exceedingly poor" and said highway personnel lacked initiative because of "many years of political interference."

He outlined a concrete plan to correct the deficiencies, including a reorganization of the Department.

Herbert Eldridge, former assistant director of the Texas Highway Department, made the report to Raymond F. Orr, chairman of the Arkansas Highway Commission.

Eldridge gathered his material during a 6-day inspection trip of Arkansas highway facilities.

A new director said he found: 1. The highways, based on adequate traffic service, range from good to exceedingly poor.

2. The highway plant, buildings, equipment and services are reasonable adequate.

3. Deficiencies in maintenance equipment and distribution. Due to past purchases practices, there are too many "off-standard" manufactured types of equipment that are uneconomical in their operation and upkeep.

4. Highway Department personnel include many capable engineers and maintenance men. In general they lack the initiative and pride of accomplishment that are brought about by many years of political interference. And they lack youth.

5. The most serious personnel problem is the deliverance of maintenance personnel from possible further political influence.

6. The number of districts, averaging 7.5 counties, may be more than are needed.

Eldridge suggested these remedies: 1. Retain political appointees who have applied themselves and have become skilled, but fire the others. Provide better salaries and working conditions to the deserving.

2. To assist in firmly and quickly crushing out the political of there should be a reorganization, preferably of the entire department. The University of Arkansas has suggested a departmental reorganization plan that merits consideration.

3. A new purchasing policy that includes only the purchase of need ed equipment and the purchase of only standard manufactured types.

Red Repatriates Stage Short Strike; UN Is Ready to Talk Peace

Masked UN Soldiers Quickly Change Sitdown Try; Russia Truce Plan May Be Accepted

By GEORGE SWEERS

By RUSSELL BRINES

PUSAN, Korea (AP) — About 750 masked Chinese Communist prisoners today staged a 2½-hour sitdown strike aboard a U. S. landing ship which brought them here on the first leg of a journey to Panmunjom for repatriation home.

A reliable source said North Korean prisoners on Koje Island also have balked. No figures were mentioned, but two more landing ships carrying North Korean disabled prisoners from Koje were due here this afternoon.

The Chinese filed slowly off the LST which brought them from Cheju Island only after American guards carrying bayoneted rifles and wearing gas masks boarded the ship.

The sitdown strike apparently was an attempt to embarrass the Allies rather than to avoid being repatriated. All the Chinese previously had said they wanted to go home.

"They were the usual nuisance demands to harass us," said a U. S. officer.

"Put it this way," said Brig. Gen. Lionel McGarr, chief of the Allied Prisoner of War Command. "These people are Communists. There is always the possibility of trouble up to the last man."

19 Survive Crash of Big Airliner

SEATTLE (AP) — Rescuers followed a trail of blood left in deep snow by a plucky stewardess yesterday and brought 19 airplane crash victims out of the wild Cascade Mountains.

Six others were killed in the crash.

The DC3 plane, chartered by the Army to fly 22 servicemen from Scranton, Pa., and Washington, D. C., to Seattle, plunged into thick trees after one of its two engines failed and ice formed on its wings.

Arduous, day-long rescue work began after the stewardess, Mrs. Ada Long of Berkeley, Calif., was spotted hobbling down the mountainside. Her winding footprints were spotted with blood. She had struggled six miles from the crash despite a long gash in her leg and severe chest injuries.

She told rescuers she regained consciousness after the crash "still sitting in my chair. I had been thrown clear of the plane."

This was at approximately 2:30 a. m. The position: 40 miles south-east of Seattle at the 3,000-foot level. Snow was five feet deep.

"I couldn't stand it up there," she said. "I had to see if I couldn't get out and get some help. One of those boys up there had one of his legs almost torn off. He was suffering terribly."

The death toll was not higher.

All Around the Town

By The Star Staff

Eleven-year-old Wanda McCoy, if her luck holds, is coming home Friday according to her father, W. L. McCoy.

Wanda was removed to a private home in Temple, Texas where she underwent a successful 4½ hour operation a week ago which removed a "leaking" artery which ran from her heart to her lung.

Wanda is almost assured of complete recovery, something that must be terribly wonderful for a person that has been critically ill since the age of one and a half years.

In fact Mr. McCoy reports that Wanda is getting along much better than was expected and attributes the fact to her amazing will to get well.

The McCoy family has no money to pay for the operation so the people of Hempstead started sending in dollars.

Over 550 and the Temple clinic cost a $3,000 operation cost to about $600 to this family which has spent everything it practically has trying to give Wanda a normal life.

Now she has that chance and is she happy reports her father. "They were awfully good and kind to us at Temple, but there are no better people on earth than right here in Hempstead. . . . you just can't express how you feel for their kindness but if they could see Wanda they would know."

Mr. McCoy said suspiciously bright-

WASHINGTON (AP) — The United Nations Command was reported about ready today to accept the Communists' suggestion for resumption of the Korean truce talks which have been bogged down since last October.

No final decisions on details have been made, informed officials said. But the U. N. probably will be prepared to accept the Red proposal that war prisoners who refuse to go home be placed under control of a neutral nation.

Switzerland reportedly may be the U. N. choice of a truly neutral nation which would be satisfactory to the Allies. The U. S., it was said, will advocate selection of Switzerland. There was no indication whether she would be acceptable to the Communists.

Instructions on these points to Gen. Mark Clark, the U. N. commander in the Far East, have not yet been confirmed, responsible sources said last night.

Rep. Short (R-Mo.), meanwhile, said the U. S. should refuse to undertake any peace negotiations that would leave Korea divided. A peace conference would follow agreement on a ceasefire.

"There can be no permanent peace or stability in the Far East or in the world with a divided Korea," said Short, chairman of the House Armed Services Committee.

"After all of the cost in tremendous battle casualties and billions of dollars for the Korean war we can be content with nothing short of complete victory."

The Chinese and North Korean Communists have insisted that agreement on exchange of sick and wounded prisoners should be followed by resumption of full truce talks.

The Reds have offered to waive their previous insistence on forcible repatriation of prisoners by agreeing to have them sent to a neutral country.

There was considerable uncertainty in official quarters here as to whether it would be possible to negotiate a final successful solution of the prisoner problem.

But the U. N. was said to be about ready to resume talks which should bring a clarification of the Red intentions. One possible stumbling block, officials say, is that the Communists compromise offer may be only a screen for some indirect method of forcing reluctant prisoners to return home.

Probers Told Marshall Slowed Arms Production

By ROSE MCKEE

WASHINGTON, (INS) — Senate investigators were told today that former Defense Secretary Marshall based Army budget planning on the assumption that the Korean war would be over by June 30, 1951.

Lt. Gen. G. H. Decker, Army comptroller, told a Senate Armed Services subcommittee probing ammunition shortages that the Army did not want to commit funds "in a way we would be embarrassed if the war should suddenly terminate."

Decker testified the policy was reflected in "general assumptions" on budget planning transmitted to the Armed Forces secretaries in Sept. 27, 1950, memorandum from Marshall.

Byrd partly described the memo as a "slow-down" order. Decker pointed out that before it was issued Allied troops had made their amphibious landing at Inchon and "things were looking good."

Thereafter, the comptroller said, the first "general assumption" in planning budget needs was that "combat operations in Korea would be concluded by June 30, 1951."

Byrd angrily asked: "In that way the Department of Defense was run. . . .

U. S. and Oil Industry to Declare Truce

WASHINGTON (UP) — The Justice Department today hoped to reach an agreement with the oil industry within the next two weeks on the question of producing documents for its anti-trust action.

Department sources said they will make every effort to get an arrangement with the major oil companies before April 28, when the department will ask Federal Judge James B. Kirkland to end a criminal grand jury investigation of an alleged international oil cartel.

Attorney General Herbert Brownell announced yesterday that the criminal case would be dropped. He said a substitute civil anti-trust suit would be filed next Tuesday charging major American oil companies with participating in an Attorneys for the oil industry said after a meeting with Brownell that they made no commitments. They indicated they could not take a firm position until after the civil suit is filed next Tuesday.

Former Attorney General James P. McGuire ordered the grand jury inquiry last July after a staff report of the Federal Trade Commission charged that major U.S. firms have entered illegal agreements to carve up world markets.

The oil companies denied the charge and refused to give the jury subpoenaed documents on the grounds that their disclosure in a criminal trial would hurt national security and U.S. foreign policy.

Chaplin Won't Return to U. S.

WASHINGTON (UP) — Charles Chaplin has voluntarily given up his status as a resident alien, a move which means the actor does not intend to return to the United States, the Justice Department announced today.

Chaplin is now in Geneva, Switzerland. He turned over to State Department officials there last Friday his "re-entry permit."

Pines Damaged by Sawflies

LITTLE ROCK (UP) — A new species of sawfly is devouring South Arkansas and North Louisiana pine forests.

Its presence was discovered recently by a Canadian entomologist, C. E. Stafford of the University of Toronto.

Stafford said he believed the insect is confined to South Arkansas and a small area in North Louisiana.

The sawfly family was first discovered in 1941 and is composed of hardy insects whose larvae eat the foliage from pines. The pests do not kill the trees, but they retard growth and weaken them so that they are subject to other forms of killing blight and insects.

which would have facilitated his return to this country.

A department spokesman said the British actor's action amounted to a "surrender of his domicile" in this country.

If Chaplin now wants to return to the United States, the department said, he must seek a "return residence visa" from the State Department.

will soon correct equipment deficiencies.

4. By setting up district engineers the area of the district could be increased and the number of districts decreased for more efficient and efficient.

5. Because of lack of sufficient funds to handle all highway work, set up a priority system in this order: maintenance of existing roads to keep traffic moving; maintenance of betterments; construction betterments; and, finally, new construction.

Allied Plane Hits UN Positions

SEOUL, S. — An Allied jet plane bombed a U. N. forward position in Eastern Korea this afternoon, causing three casualties, the Eighth Army announced.

It was not known whether any of the three casualties were deaths or whether the victims were South Koreans, Americans or other UN troops.

U. S., Russia to Air Pole Peace Plan

UNITED NATIONS, N.Y. (UP) — The United States and Russia were expected to battle orally today on Poland's "peace" resolution, the major Soviet propaganda effort at this session of the United Nations General Assembly.

Both Ernest A. Gross and Andrei Y. Vishinsky were listed to speak this afternoon in the political committee. But it was unlikely that the 60-nation group would reach a vote before tomorrow afternoon at the earliest.

Brazil's introduction of a new resolution designed to keep Korean truce talks in Panmunjon and out of the UN was expected to lengthen the list of speakers in the debate that has already lasted a week.

The resolution will be presented to the committee verbally by Brazilian Delegate Henrique De Souza Gomes. It was circulated yesterday after it had been drafted at a luncheon conference at the American delegation attended by representatives of the U.S., Britain, France, Brazil, Australia New Zealand and South Africa.

IN THE DOGHOUSE

INDIANAPOLIS (AP) — Sheriff's deputies know Richard Barty, 29, was in the doghouse last night, because that's just where they found him hiding.

Neighbors complained he'd been shooting windows out of his own house.

"I just wanted to let off a little steam," he explained.

The officers took him to jail on charges of disorderly conduct, drunkenness and shooting inside the city.

Describes Search for Convoy

Editor's Note: The 5th Air Force took United Press Correspondent Robert Ulick in a plane to North Korea in search of the Communists' "freedom convoy." This story follows.

ROBERT UICK
OVER SINANJU, North Korea, and on, other reconnaissance flights stretched north into a hazy distance beyond the battered bridges.

Somewhere beneath a blanket of clouds farther north, 20 thousands of seriously sick and wounded troops of the United Nations were headed for Pannudom for home.

As we flew north in a speedy reconnaissance plane above the land over which the returning prisoners will travel, we could see why the Reds wanted 10 days to make the move.

On our way, other reconnaissance flights—P-50 Shooting Stars, high-altitude Saboteurs and twin-engine bombers—were searching for the "freedom trucks" of the convoy.

Ulick, in this two-engine reconnaissance P-50, was taken to the front lines of the Communist forces. The 5th Fighter-Bomber Wing, the 5th Fighter-Bomber Wing, the 5th Fighter-Bomber Wing, the 5th Fighter-Bomber Wing.

Over Sinanju we could see many bridges where once there were only piles of rubble. Additional ones were being built. In an attempt to keep their lines moving to the front, the Reds have watched and bombed whenever the bridges looked vulnerable.

Today, one of these bridges was ready to allow the prisoner convoy to pass over the Chongchon river. Then the convoy would move south with guaranteed safe passage over the deserted roads.

Probers to Look Into Tax Returns

WASHINGTON (AP) — House investigators today planned a dollar-a-day combing of the income tax returns of 100,000 men.

The probe, which began today, was part of a drive to find out if the men who were in the military service from 1945 to 1948 had paid their taxes.

It came from an investigation conducted for United States President John L. Eisenhower by the General Accounting Office.

Weeks Swings Ax Amid Shrill Cries

By JAMES MARLOW

WASHINGTON (AP) — Sinclair Weeks, the new secretary of commerce, in an enthusiastic promise that the Eisenhower administration would clean out the "mess," said: "Shrill cries will be heard as the ax is swung."

He perhaps became a better prophet than he suspected. Shortly afterwards he fired Dr. Allen V. Astin, director of the Bureau of Standards, the government's primary scientific testing outfit, with a worldwide reputation for integrity.

If Weeks had sacked Astin quietly, as other government employees have been fired by the new administration, nothing might have been heard of it. But Weeks did it in a way that kicked up a storm which is still blowing.

Weeks is a roundish man of 50, a Boston banker-politician, one of President Eisenhower's early Republican backers. He was named to the cabinet after the election.

And he is still using some of the language that was so prominent in the campaign. "The new administration," he said, shortly after taking office, "is worse than the 1930's. It's a mess."

The "shrill cries" as the ax hit, he said, would come from "dead-end jobs and dead-end careers." And he suggested the Democrats may have left behind some "Trojan horse" civil servants to "tamper" and "wreck the new administration."

But he added that he respects the bonafide career men and women in every grade of the federal service. Abuse came when certain employees were frozen into policy-making and confidential positions.

On March 31, three days after his statement, he named Astin, a scientist and a Republican, who had been with the Bureau of Standards since 1932 and had been directing it since Oct. 1, 1951.

Weeks that day went before a Senate Small Business Committee with his right hand man, Craig Sheffer, president and director of the W. A. Sheffer Pen Company, and new assistance secretary of Commerce.

Weeks read a prepared statement. It was lengthy. Boiled down, this was the story:

Several years ago the New York Better Business Bureau complained to the Federal Trade Commission (FTC) about a battery additive called AD-X2, made by Jesse M. Ritchie of California. One of the bureau's jobs is to make scientific tests for the FTC on commercial products to protect the public.

The bureau made tests on AD-X2, and didn't think much of it. Ritchie complained to the Senate Small Business Committee, which asked the Massachusetts Institute of Technology to run tests. It did.

MIT seemed to contradict, in part, the bureau's findings. Which is right hasn't been finally decided.

Arkansas at the hearing included Edwin Pyant of Searcy, Ark., a member of the Legislative Committee of the American Bankers Association, and John Hudisill, executive director of the Arkansas Public Expenditures Council.

NEW GAS FIRE BATH TOUGHENS ARMOR OF U.S. TANKS

but Weeks said he felt Ritchie shake from the "bureaucrats."

When Sen. Hunt, Wyoming Democrat, asked Sheffer if it wasn't a "little rough" to fire a government employee for one mistake, Sheffer replied: "This is one far-ago mistake."

He introduced a bill yesterday to make witnesses answer committee questions or go to jail for contempt.

The measure would grant a witness immunity from prosecution on any testimony given to a committee.

Under present law, a witness may decline to give answers on the ground that they might incriminate him. Courts have ruled that, in such cases, the reluctant witness cannot be held in contempt of Congress.

"As I see it," Norrell said, "it is a question of giving this immunity and getting the testimony we want or not giving the immunity and not getting the testimony. It's the only way we have of forcing rats to testify."

The Chaco Indians of Panama use bows and arrows, but travel in boats powered by outboard motors.

And over the past week end, Washington newspapers reported more than 50 employees of Astin's bureau threatened to quit unless their good name was cleared. Sen. Thye now seems prepared to investigate.

He introduced a bill yesterday to make witnesses answer committee questions or go to jail for contempt.

Variations in size and thickness of tank armor castings make uniform hardening a serious problem. General Steel Castings Corporation solved this by using continuous heat treating furnaces.

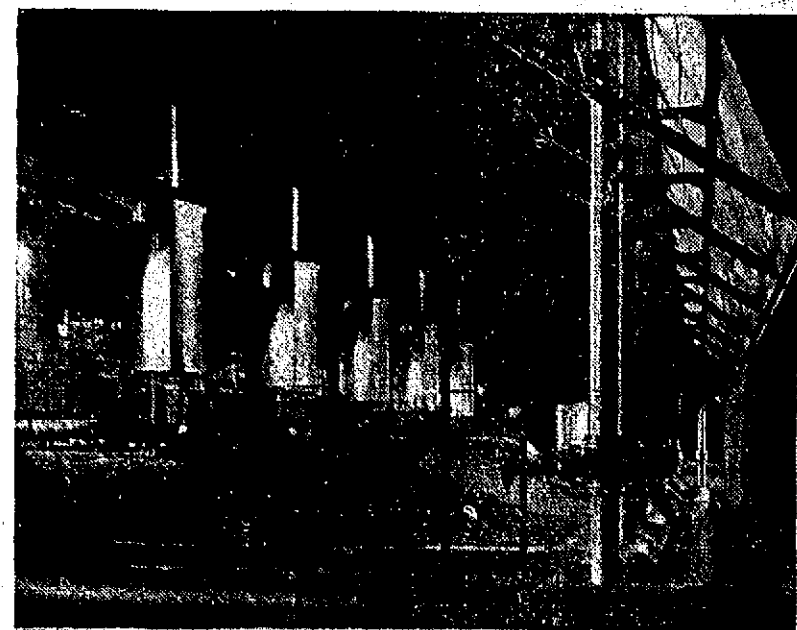

naces equipped with precision, gas cup burners. Philadelphia Electric Company, a customer of Texas Eastern, supplies gas for these huge, high-temperature furnaces at Eddystone, Penna.

Fighting in exposed positions a tank has to withstand enemy fire, roll with the punches and come up fighting. It's only as tough as its armor. Solid steel castings hardened at high temperatures in block-long gas furnaces give our tanks the toughest armor possible. Why furnaces fired by gas? Because gas produces terrific temperatures... is exactly controlled... and does the job with practical economy.

One got. While you are there, naturally, he will wine and dine you — and that is also a good time for you to borrow his phone for an hour of social calls on his bill.

4. Little leaks will sink a great ship. So never fork out your own dough for things people lend and never really expect to get back — such as stamps, umbrellas, books, magazines, cigaret lighters and pocket combs. They all add up, you know. You can pawn umbrellas if you get so many they clutter your closets.

5. If you develop an ailment, find somebody with the same one. Then see what his doctor is doing for him, borrow his medicine. Everybody is happy to lend his pills to a fellow sufferer. However, if he gets worse, stop borrowing his medicine immediately, unless you are absolutely sure it is curing you.

6. Never play the stock market except with the money Jones lends you. If the stock goes up, you can pay him back. If it goes down, and he presses you for payment, just tell him firmly, "Look, Jones, old boy, if I thought you were going to be stuffy about this, I'd have gone to my bank." That'll shame him into silence for another half year. By then he may be dead — and of course, since you gave him no I.O.U., what have you got to worry about? You may even be able to borrow more from his widow.

7. One final important point. Never, never borrow another man's wife. It is too dangerous. Sooner or later you might run into a fellow who won't let you return her — and what a nuisance that could be!

land cotton, are resulting from a combination of high production costs set in the past, favorable weather in producing areas, and declining exports.

The secretary explained that existing laws make mandatory the imposition of controls when supplies exceed reasonable needs, as calculated in accordance with legislative provisions.

Benson also took a slap at the high level rates at which cotton and wheat must be supported by the government under terms of farm law.

"While we want to avoid controls to the fullest extent possible, the existence of mandatory price supports on these crops at 90 per cent of parity levels may, without restricted production, hold the threat of a huge buildup of government investment in loans and inventories, and the danger of large ultimate losses."

Parity is a price determined by legal formula to be fair to farmers in terms of the cost of things they buy.

The decision on marketing quotas for the 1954 wheat crop must be made by next July 1, and on acreage allotments by July 15. The decision on both quotas and allotments for cotton must be made by next October 15.

Quotas — which would impose heavy cash penalties on sale of crops in excess of a farm's share — must be approved by at least two-thirds of the growers voting in a referendum.

Benson estimated there are about 2,100,000 wheat farms and 1,350,000 cotton farms.

EL DORADO — Two Arkansas high school teachers, one of them a Negro principal who feels he is helping his race to seek a real future in the South by teaching that "the basic by which any race is judged is by its accomplishments and the assistance it renders its fellow men," have won $1,200 scholarships for advanced education in the final essay contest sponsored for Southern teachers this year by the Lion Oil Scholarship Fund. They are Jack Quentin Reynolds, instructor in Social Science at Springdale Junior High School, Springdale, Ark., and Elijah Coleman, principal of Immanuel High School for Negroes, Almyra, Ark., according to C. Mitchell Jr., instructor in Home Economics at Humboldt High School, Humboldt, Tenn., was the winner of the third $1,200 scholarship offered in the contest, Mr. Olson said.

lined a 9-7 million dollar expansion program.

LITTLE ROCK — A Southwestern Bell Telephone official outlined a 9.7 million dollar Arkansas expansion program here yesterday during a hearing on the Company's request for a $2.3 million annual rate increase.

H. R. Fritz of St. Louis, assistant vice president in charge of Bell engineering, told the State Public Service Commission that about 9,000 telephones are expected to be added to the Arkansas system this year.

He said 10,000 telephones were installed last year, when the firm spent more than $10 million in construction.

In a breakdown of Company expansion program, Fritz said 2.5 million dollars would be spent for additional central office equipment for local and long distance toll service, with more than 20 exchanges to be improved under this program alone.

Other major expenditures itemized by Fritz included: 1.1 million dollars — intercity cables, including Little Rock, Hot Springs, Jacksonville-Sealey, Little Rock-Memphis.

because trees broke the plane's fall. Wings were torn from the craft. The fuselage broke in two, the forward section badly smashed and the rear virtually intact.

The pilot, co-pilot and four servicemen were fatally injured.

The only other survivor to walk out was Pvt. Odell Matthews of Washington, D. C. All the others were carried to a tiny helicopter landing spot less than a mile from the wreckage and to trucks which followed bulldozers up the mountain to within a quarter mile of the cold and pain-wracked survivors.

One of the survivors who spent the day awaiting rescue was Pvt. Howard Wormuth, 21, Carbondale, Pa., who said the plane had had engine trouble out of Chicago and had to return there for servicing. Later, he said, "It seemed to me that the engine was missing. All night long, I didn't think we were going to make it. A lot of the other boys felt the same way. We were on only one engine when the plane crashed. First thing I knew I was thrown out on the snow."

"After the stewardess and Mat thews left to find help the rest of us tried the best we could to make the seriously injured comfortable. It was bitter cold. My feet were frostbitten."

Says Russia Wants German Unity Meet

By DAN DE LUCE

BERLIN — East Germany's No. 1 Communist declared today that the Soviet Union seeks a four-power conference on the reunification of Germany and demanded that the United States "show its readiness to accept."

Deputy Premier Walter Ulbricht, who controls the ruling Socialist Unity Communist Party as secretary general, spearheaded the new unity campaign with a frontpage statement here in the official Soviet newspaper, Tagliche Rundschau.

The statement was issued after consultation with Russia's occupation chief, Gen. Vassily Chulikov, who was unofficially reported to have received instructions from Moscow to draft a new set of proposals on German unification.

The first big objective Ulbricht said, is to kill off West Germany's "illegal" treaties of military and political alliance with Western powers.

He asserted that the Communist bloc had paved the way for negotiations on Germany by the Chinese and North Korean overtures for ending the Korean War. These have Soviet Foreign Minister Molotov's "active support," he added.

Attacking West German Chancellor Konrad Adenauer as "leader of a clique of national traitors," Ulbricht asserted that American funds promised to Adenauer for financing defense industries "mean nothing else than credits for the destruction of Germany."

Small Strawberry Crop for Arkansas

LITTLE ROCK — The smallest strawberry crop in nine years may be harvested by Arkansas farmers this year.

The Federal-State Crop Reporting Service says prospects for April 1, were for a crop of 200,000 crates, smallest since 1944. The report said the indicated yield of 30 crates per acre would be the smallest on record.

The information was compiled before last Monday's killing frost, which inflicted a loss to Sealey County strawberries estimated at 20 to 50 per cent.

The crop report said Sealey County had the only prospect for a good crop.

Sooner Aggies Best Porkers

STILLWATER, Okla. (AP) — For the second consecutive day, the Oklahoma Aggies scored the winning run in the ninth inning to beat the Arkansas Razorbacks, 11-10, here yesterday and sweep a 2-game series.

Bob Bonebrake who had struck out four times previously singled to center field to drive in the deciding tally.

Lewis Carpenter of Arkansas and Bill Finegan of A&M hit home runs in the 25-hit slugfest.

Lefty Bob St. Pierre, who went the route for the Razorbacks, fanned 12 batters.

A&M clipped the Porkers 14-13, Monday with two runs in the ninth. Arkansas 001 202 100-11 3 Oklahoma 001 602 011-11 14 1 St. Pierre and Wilkerson, Carpenter (9); Moss, White (4); Kinnaman (7) and Colwell, Bunyard (7).

Thrillers Coming Early in Baseball

By BEN PHLEGAR
AP Sports Writer

The major leagues' scriptwriters gave it the old college try for opening day.

In seven games they came up with an extra inning thriller won by a Milwaukee rookie's homer; a one-hit sensation by Cleveland's Bob Lemon; come-from-behind victories by Brooklyn and the Chicago Cubs; the New York Yankees' first opening day shutout loss in 17 years; a decisive setback for Rob in Roberts; last year's best pitcher, and an expert whitewashing of his former Detroit teammates by Virgil Trucks.

Even the one postponement had a special twist. The Boston Red Sox were forced to cancel both days of a two-day series with Washington because of snow — the first snowed-out game in Boston since 1933.

Polar bear weather prevailed generally, holding the total crowds to 170,269, almost 50,000 below expectations.

The hardy souls who ventured out saw Milwaukee nip St. Louis, 3-2; Chicago edge Cincinnati, 3-2; Brooklyn whip Pittsburgh, 8-5, and New York defeat Philadelphia 4-1, in National League encounters and three American League shutouts—Cleveland over Chicago 6-0, Philadelphia over the Yankees, 5-0, and St. Louis over Detroit, 10-0.

The day's largest crowd, 53,698 watched Lemon give up a clean single to Minnie Miñoso in the first inning for the first and last Chicago hit. Only three other firms the White Sox get the ball out of the infield although four walks and two errors gave them six other base runners.

At Yankee Stadium, Casey Stengel ran up his fourth straight American League pennant. Was about the last thing the crowd of 23,534 had to cheer about because the A's Alex Keller made the world champions look like minor leaguers the rest of the afternoon.

The Yanks managed only five singles. Vic Raschi, pounded early and often, was the loser.

Bill Bruton, a grinning, hollow-cheeked Negro rookie who probably is the fastest man in the majors, continued to write the Milwaukee success story with a bold hand as he homered in the 10th inning to give the Braves a home town triumph over the Cardinals.

Ken Raffensberger, who has lost more games in the National League than any other active pitcher, dropped his 139th yesterday when Chicago scored two unearned runs in the eighth inning to defeat Cincinnati, 3-2, before 21,222 Chicago fans.

The Dodgers bragged all spring about their pitchers but they couldn't find one to go the route on opening day. Carl Erskine was the choice and the Pittsburgh Pirates got rid of him with a four-run outburst in the fourth inning. Joe Black saved the day for the 12,433 Ebbets Field faithful as the Dodgers found the range for four runs in the fourth and fifth against Murry Dickson.

Henderson Protests 6-5 Defeat

By The Associated Press
Southern State and Arkansas A&M share first place in the Arkansas Intercollegiate Conference baseball race today but a ruling by AIC Commissioner H. L. McAlister could knock the Aggies down a notch.

A&M's 6-5 victory over Henderson at Arkadelphia yesterday was protested to McAlister by Reddie Coach Duke Wells.

Wells disagreed with base umpire Rab Rodgers' ruling that Reddie batter Howard interfered with the Aggie first baseman's attempt to field his grounder with two out in the ninth inning and a Henderson runner streaking home from third on the play. Rodgers called Howard the third out, although he wasn't tagged, the A&M first baseman didn't touch his base and the throw home was late.

Wells and A&M Coach Ross Collins agreed that if McAlister rules in favor of Henderson, the game will be replayed altogether as part of a doubleheader when the Reddies visit A&M April 28. If the commissioner overrules the protest, the 6-5 result will stand, of course.

Grady Cathey's homer and Willie Martin's triple sparked a 4-run sixth inning rally that powered Southern State over College of the Ozarks, 12-5, at Magnolia.

W. T. Watson of Southern and Calvin Burks of Ozarks each hit a 2-run homer.

Essays on "Why My Profession Is Important to the Future of the South" Earn Full-Year, All-Expense Educational Awards

The folks of Lion Oil Company extend heartfelt congratulations to the winners of the final Lion Oil Scholarship Fund essay contest for teachers this school year. To a reassuring to know the thoughts of Southern teachers as they prepare our young people for the great opportunities that lie ahead in the Southland. The future is in good hands, capable hands!

Lion Oil is privileged to be able to award these three $1,200 all-expense university scholarships. Each award helps a teacher to gain a more abundant store of knowledge and skill to pass on to the eager youngsters who will be the citizens of our Southland tomorrow!

The Lion Oil Scholarship Fund was started in 1950 in a sincere effort to broaden the educational opportunities for Southern youth. The program was expanded last year to include the teachers who share so much of the responsibility for the continuing progress of our schools.

Six $1,200 university scholarships have been awarded in Lion Oil Scholarship Fund essay contests for teachers during this school year. Since the Scholarship Program began, Lion has awarded 686 prizes worth more than $65,000 to Southern teachers and their students. This is one way in which Lion shows faith in the South and its future.

Why the Scholarship Fund Was Established

Lion Oil is part-and-parcel of the South, employing more than 2,600 persons, with an annual payroll of more than $12,000,000. Lion Oil manufactures more than sixty petroleum products which keep the wheels of Southern industry, transportation, and agriculture spinning. Lion's nitrogen fertilizers enrich the soil of Southern farms...

help Southern farmers produce more and better crops.

The Scholarship Fund is Lion Oil Company's way of saying, "We believe in the South... are eager to assist its sons and daughters... our good neighbors. We're proud to be 'Home-Folks—Good Neighbors!'"

Judges in this contest were: Dr. W. M. Kethley, president; Miss Evelyn Hammett, head of the Department of Languages and Literature; and Miss Kate Maudlin, Registrar and Associate Professor of Education, all of Mississippi Delta State Teachers College, Cleveland, Mississippi.
